

Matthew J. Shin

Education	February 2022 – Present	Master’s Degree candidate at Northwestern University
	August 2009 – May 2012	J.D. from Washington University School of Law in Saint Louis
	August 2007 – May 2008	Post Baccalaureate in Advanced Sciences at Oakland University
	August 2003 – May 2007	B.S. in Human Biology with a Specialization in Bioethics from Michigan State University
Professional Experience	June 2019 – Present	Owner and attorney at shinIP LLC, an intellectual property law firm
	March 2021 – February 2022	Of Counsel at Ruder Ware LLSC in Business Transactions practice group
	February 2016 – June 2019	Intellectual Property Counsel at Mars Wrigley Confectionery
	August 2012 – February 2016	Associate in IP Litigation and Mechanical and Electromechanical Technologies Practice Group at Foley & Lardner LLP
Practicum/Internships	May 2023 – Present	Practicum Student at Oshkosh Marriage and Family Therapy Center, LLC
Volunteerism	November 2022 – Present	Attorney volunteer for the Wisconsin Lawyers Assistance Program
	October 2021 – Present	Board Member of Habitat for Humanity of Wausau
Publications & Workshops	May 25, 2023	Judicare Continuing Legal Education Seminar – “Not Just Treading Water: Managing Burnout & Stress”
	March 2, 2023	WisLAP wellNEWS Newsletter Article – “When the Pie Eating Contest Goes Stale: A Contestant's Strategies for Managing Work and Stress”